In the spirit

If you're aiming to reduce your alcohol consumption this summer season, but don't want to give up tasty cocktails, look no further! UK-based company Seedlip has introduced the world's first distilled non-alcoholic spirits. Each expression—Grove 42 Citrus, Spice 94 Aromatic and Garden 108 Herbal—is lovely sipped on its own, mixed with tonic or soda water, or used in a cocktail—all options are delicious. The company's mission is to "work with the natural world to change the way the world drinks." Naturally, we agree.

Use in place of traditional dishwashing liquid with no need to fill the sink with soapy water: Simply rub your sponge or dishcloth on the paste, scrub the dirty dishes and rinse.
